From 10th to 12th of June 2010, the HSK (Croatian Dental Chamber) in cooperation with Oral Dent company, supported by international associations like DGZI (Deutsche Gesellschaft für Zahnärztliche Implantologie e.V.), organized an extraordinary assembly of dental experts from all over the world on the island of Hvar, Croatia.

More than 40 lecturers from Europe, the United States of America and Middle East gave lectures on the island of Hvar. Well organized programs for dentists, dental technicians, many workshops, a Laser Symposium and a big international exhibition along with the educational program were provided. The whole event took place in the Grand Hotel Amfora, in the town of Hvar. It is important to mention that the Croatian Dental Chamber rated this congress with maximal 12 points. So the ranking of this congress was amongst the best events in Croatia in 2010. The organizers agreed that this dental highlight will be repeated in 2011. The date for the 2nd Hvar International Dental Congress will be published soon.

The European Association for Osseointegration (EAO) will award its first Certificates in Implant-based Therapy at the EAO annual Congress which will be held this year in Glasgow from 6–9 October. As the only Europe-wide standardised assessment of implant-based therapy, the certificate will provide a benchmark for assessing knowledge and skills. The first candidates to participate in the new certification scheme will undergo their final examinations in Glasgow just prior to the awards ceremony. They will be questioned about six case studies they have submitted and will be required to demonstrate knowledge of theoretical and clinical implant based therapy. This includes basic knowledge of anatomy, pathology, biomechanics, physiology, histology, applied dental materials, applied pharmacology, radiology and biostatistics.

Candidates who successfully complete the certification programme will be able to demonstrate to both patients and regulatory authorities that they are competent to perform straightforward implant treatments. The certification process is both rigorous and time-consuming so the EAO will only initially be able to certify a limited number of candidates each year. However, it is expected this will increase as more resources are made available.

Details of the 2011 certification programme will appear later this year on the EAO website: www.eao.org

The 2010 EAO Congress takes place at the Scottish Exhibition and Conference Centre (SECC) which is Scotland’s premier national conference and concert venue. More than 3,000 dentists, academics and specialists from around the world are expected to attend to discuss some of the most important issues and dilemmas they face in daily practice. A world-class faculty of more than 40 speakers and chairpersons will be participating. There will also be a wide range of other attractions including multiple parallel sessions, master classes, short oral communications, a poster presentation, EAO Research Prize Competitions in Clinical and Basic Research, and a series of pre-congress ‘step-by-step’ courses. A large trade exhibition runs throughout the conference and there will be further industry satellite symposia presented by the main sponsors.

“We have nearly 500 abstracts submitted for the Clinical and Research competitions making this one of the leading forums for implant dentistry in the world,” said EAO Scientific Chairman, and EAO President Elect Dr Paul Stone. There will be simultaneous translation to French, German, Italian and Spanish.

Advance bookings for the trade exhibition already indicate that it is likely to be one of the biggest ever organised by the EAO.

In Cannes, the city of the rich and beautiful people, aesthetics has always played a major role, especially at the international film festival. In April 2011, the next international Osteology Symposium will illuminate aesthetics from a different side and put the spotlight on regenerative therapies with their current possibilities and limits.

In recent years, regenerative therapies in implantology and periodontology have changed markedly, from pure hard tissue augmentation to comprehensive management and augmentation of bone and soft tissue. Both tissues are essential for a stable, functional and aesthetic outcome. The scientific programme of Osteology in Cannes reflects this fact: besides recent results on bone regeneration and the handling of complications, an important focus will be on new treatments and products for soft tissue augmentation.

From 14–16 April 2011, experienced researchers and well-known practitioners will discuss the latest research results and current treatment concepts. The preliminary congress on Thursday will be entirely practice-oriented: in workshops the participants will be able to discuss treatment methods and train in them practically. The main scientific programme on Friday and Saturday will show which therapies are today’s state of the art and underpinned by clinical evidence, how risk factors are assessed and how complications are treated. Talks and presentations on new studies and with specific treatment tips, and also the clinical forum with a podium discussion of clinical cases, will provide answers to the questions: what are today’s possibilities and limits for regenerative therapy and in what direction will they develop?

The international Osteology symposia have become established in the last few years as the most im-important series of congresses on the topic of regeneration. Osteology in Cannes will again combine high-quality science with specific clinic and dental practice demands, on one of Europe’s most beautiful coastlines. And while “more illusion than reality” is presented at the famous Cannes Film Festival, Osteology will show how clinicians can today achieve not only “reality” in regeneration that will also be “long-stay”.

Osteology in Cannes—the topics:
_ GBR in implant patients—a critical overview
_ Clinical evidence for improvement of the long-term prognosis of teeth through GTR
_ Regenerative treatment of peri-implantitis
_ Sinus floor augmentation
_ Treatment of complex cases
_ Soft tissue aesthetics around teeth and implants
_ New treatment methods in soft tissue augmentation.
