Copyright regulations
The Journal of Oral Science & Rehabilitation is published quarterly by Dental Tribune International (DTI). The journal and all articles and illustrations contained therein are protected by copyright. Any utilization without the prior consent of the authors, editor and publisher is prohibited and liable to prosecution. This applies in particular to the duplication of copies, translations, microfilms, and storage and processing in electronic systems. Reproductions, including extracts, may only be made with the permission of the publisher. Given no statement to the contrary, any submissions to the editorial department are understood to be in agreement with full or partial publishing of said submission. The editorial department reserves the right to check all submitted articles for formal errors and factual authority, and to make amendments if necessary. Articles bearing symbols other than that of the editorial department, or that are distinguished by the name of the author, represent the opinion of the afore-mentioned, and do not have to comply with the views of DTI. Responsibility for such articles shall be borne by the author. Responsibility for advertisements and other specially labeled items shall not be borne by the editorial department. Likewise, no responsibility shall be assumed for information published about associations, companies and commercial markets. All cases of consequential liability arising from inaccurate or faulty representation are excluded. The legal domicile is Leipzig, Germany.
